Asset Advisory Services' Broker/Dealer, Commonwealth Financial Network, Receives Highest Ranking in J.D. Power and Associates Study

Commonwealth Financial Network ranks "Highest in Independent Advisor Satisfaction Among Financial Investment Firms," twice in a row

Jupiter, Florida (May 15, 2012)—For the second time in a row, J.D. Power and Associates ranks Commonwealth Financial Network® "Highest in Independent Advisor Satisfaction Among Financial Investment Firms."

Commonwealth is the largest, privately held independent broker/dealer in the United States. Asset Advisory Services of Jupiter, Florida an independent financial planning practice, has been affiliated with Commonwealth since 1992.

Commonwealth received five out of five JDPower.com Power Circle Ratings, equating to "among the best" in seven of the eight key drivers of satisfaction—firm performance, people, technology, compensation, contact, job duties, and product offering for clients—according to J.D. Power and Associates.

"We are honored and humbled to be the highest-ranked firm among independent advisors two times in a row," said Commonwealth CEO, Wayne Bloom. "We thank all our advisors, particularly Curtis S. Francisco, CFP®, AIF®, for honoring us with a partnership that helps to serve his clients. He's working hard every day to satisfy the people who depend on him, and it helps inspire us to do the same for them."

Commonwealth received an overall satisfaction rating of 917 on a 1,000-point scale, compared to an industry average of 774, and performed particularly well in factors of job duties, firm performance, and technology.
